Ski Mountaineering Meet 2017 Booking Conditions (Please retain this page for future reference)

1. All bookings are made with Mountaineering Ireland, whose registered office is; Sport HQ, National Sports Campus, Blanchardstown, Dublin 15, Ireland.
2. These courses are only open to current members of the Mountaineering Ireland.
3. Closing date for bookings is 4 February 2017.
4. You must purchase specialist mountaineering insurance covering helicopter rescue, medical treatment, cancellation and repatriation. The BMC's Alpine & Ski policy is recommended. You must bring all insurance documentation with you on the course.
5. Please be aware that you are liable for the cost of cable cars, food and transport.
6. If you wish to cancel, the following cancellation charges apply:
 - Candidate cancels up to 6 weeks before course date = 10% administration charge
 - Candidate cancels 6 to 2 weeks before course date = 70% cancellation fee
 - Candidate cancels less than 2 weeks before course date = 100% cancellation fee
7. Course participants for Alpine Courses must arrive at the meet venue by 18:00 on the day before their course, for a pre course briefing and gear check. Consider this is a part of your course.
8. Only bookings from persons who are over the age of 18 at the time of booking will be accepted. Bookings by or on behalf of persons under 18 may be accepted, when accompanied on the course by another person over 18 and subject to written parental consent. Acceptance of these applications is at the discretion of Mountaineering Ireland.
9. All information provided by Mountaineering Ireland is for guidance only. Whilst making every effort to ensure accuracy, we cannot be responsible for any inaccuracies or alterations beyond our control.
10. The guides maintain high professional standards of client care and safety. However, you must realise and accept that mountaineering activities carry a risk of personal injury or even death, as they take place in remote and hazardous mountain terrain. All clients must be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement in such activities.
11. At the discretion of the Chief Guide, guiding ratios may be varied from the stated course ratio. This is to cover eventualities such as staff absence or a change of itinerary, so long as this does not breach accepted local guiding ratios or other professional guidelines laid out by the British Association of Mountain Guides.
12. The guide has total discretion to alter course content at any time in the interests of client safety. Programmes can vary depending on the group (fitness, experience, interests, etc.) location and weather conditions.
13. The guides reserve the right to exclude individuals from a planned activity on the grounds of health, safety or the success and enjoyment of the rest of the party. Any individuals so excluded are not entitled to a refund. Any individual contravening the decisions or advice of their guide, or undertaking independent mountain activities during the course shall forfeit all protection and duty of care from the guide.
14. We accept no liability for the consequences of strikes, riots, acts of war or terrorism, disease outbreaks, government intervention, natural disasters or adverse weather conditions. If such occurrences cause us to have to cancel a course we will offer an alternative if possible, but accept no liability for return of fees paid prior to cancellation or curtailment.
15. If you have a complaint about the guiding service you receive at any point during the course, you must notify the guide involved or the Chief Guide and the Mountaineering Ireland Liaison Officer at the Meet as soon as possible. Guides do not have authority to offer refunds or compensation on behalf of Mountaineering Ireland. Only Mountaineering Ireland is authorised to make such decisions.
16. By making your booking, you understand and accept the booking conditions and agree to abide by them.
