

Summer Alpine Meet 2021 Booking Form

Important notice for all course participants - Please read carefully

- A good level of fitness is essential all courses. We recommend that you allow yourself sufficient time to prepare in order to avoid unnecessary injuries and to get the most from these opportunities.
- The course fees cover tuition only and do not include travel insurance or cancellation insurance (which we recommend you acquire), food, cable car costs, camp fees, accommodation, hut fees or local travel costs. Please allow for this when budgeting.
- With the exception of ropes, course participants need to provide their own equipment, an equipment list is available on our website.
- Course dates are provisional and may be adjusted to meet demand. These will be finalised at the end of May based on bookings received and participants will be advised of any changes. Mountaineering Ireland reserves the rights to cancel any course should there be insufficient numbers.
- Email is our primary contact method, so you MUST provide us with a valid email address. Please make sure that the email address you provide is both spelt correctly and written clearly. We cannot accept liability for any communication problems caused by personal firewalls, spam filtering systems, or your inability to open attached email documents.

Summer Alpine Meet Booking Conditions (Please retain this page for future reference)

1. All bookings are made with Mountaineering Ireland, whose registered office is Irish Sport HQ, National Sports Campus, Blanchardstown, Dublin 15.
2. These courses are only open to current members of the Mountaineering Ireland.
3. Closing date for bookings is 31st May 2021
4. For those choosing the camping only option and not booking any organised activities, you must include the non refundable €10 administration fee with your application.
5. You must purchase specialist mountaineering insurance covering helicopter rescue, medical treatment, cancellation and repatriation. The BMC's Alpine & Ski policy is recommended. You must bring all insurance documentation with you on the course.
6. Please be aware that you are liable for the cost of cable cars, hut fees, food and transport.
7. Cancellation policy: If you cancel within 6 weeks of the Meet, you will not be eligible for any refund. If you cancel between 6 and 10 weeks of the Meet, we will refund 25% of your course fees. If you cancel between 10 and 12 weeks of the Meet, we will refund 50% of your course fees.
8. Course participants for Alpine Courses must arrive at the meet campsite by 18:00 on the day before their course, (i.e.) either Saturday for a pre course briefing and gear check. Consider this is a part of your course.
9. Only bookings from persons who are over the age of 18 at the time of booking will be accepted. Bookings by or on behalf of persons under 18 may be accepted, when accompanied on the course by another person over 18 and subject to written parental consent. Acceptance of these applications is at the discretion of Mountaineering Ireland.
10. All information provided by Mountaineering Ireland is for guidance only. Whilst making every effort to ensure accuracy, we cannot be responsible for any inaccuracies or alterations beyond our control.
11. The guides maintain high professional standards of client care and safety. However, you must realise and accept that mountaineering activities carry a risk of personal injury or even death, as they take place in remote and hazardous mountain terrain. All clients must be aware of and accept these risks and be responsible for their own actions and involvement in such activities.
12. At the discretion of the training officer, guiding ratios may be varied from the stated course ratio. This is to cover eventualities such as staff absence or a change of itinerary, so long as this does not breach accepted local guiding ratios or other professional guidelines as laid out by the British Association of Mountain Guides.
13. The guide has total discretion to alter course content at any time in the interests of client safety. Programmes can vary depending on the group (fitness, experience, interests, etc.) location and weather conditions.
14. The guides reserve the right to exclude individuals from a planned activity on the grounds of health, safety or the success and enjoyment of the rest of the party. Any individuals so excluded are not entitled to a refund. Any individual contravening the decisions or advice of their guide or undertaking independent mountain activities during the course shall forfeit all protection and duty of care from the guide.
15. We accept no liability for the consequences of strikes, riots, acts of war or terrorism, disease outbreaks, government intervention, natural disasters or adverse weather conditions. If such occurrences cause us to have to cancel a course we will offer an alternative if possible, but accept no liability for return of fees paid prior to cancellation or curtailment.
16. If you have a complaint about the guiding service you receive at any point during the course, you must notify the guide involved or the Training Officer. Guides do not have authority to offer refunds or compensation on behalf of Mountaineering Ireland. Only Mountaineering Ireland is authorised to make such decisions.
17. By making your booking, you understand and accept the booking conditions and agree to abide by them.
